

Angelo Memorial Scholarship

James and Louise Angelo were lifelong farmers in Morgan County. They were members of the Church of Our Saviour, where their love and trust of the Lord gave them the strength to lead others to know God. The Angelos were quiet and humble people who worked the ground to produce a rich harvest to feed others. They believed in the future of farming and the skills needed to care for the land. It was their hope to extend their knowledge of God and farming to the youth of our schools, giving them the opportunity to excel and to be outstanding in the field of agriculture.

Family and friends of James and Louise Angelo established this scholarship with the directives that it be awarded to a student who is: continuing his or her education at Routt Catholic High School, demonstrates financial need, in good academic standing. Preference will first be given to students who show an interest in agriculture or education, but if no student meets the criteria, the scholarship will be awarded to a student with different interests
