

Bordenkircher Leadership Scholarship

The family of John J. Bordenkircher established the Bordenkircher Memorial Scholarship in his memory in 2011. The Memorial Scholarship was established to provide assistance to a new student based on the student's financial need and strong desire to attend Routt. The Leadership Scholarship was added to provide assistance to an ongoing student based on the student's strong academic ability and contributions to Routt through a variety of activities.

The Bordenkircher Leadership Scholarship is a minimum $250 scholarship awarded to a returning Routt student who is entering their sophomore, junior, or senior year. Selection for the scholarship will be based on the student's strong academic ability (3.25 GPA or higher) as well as his or her leadership abilities and contributions to the school through a variety of activities (athletics, clubs, and other types). The student who receives the scholarship must be of sound moral character with preference given to a practicing Catholic.
